Calling

Please state briefly below why you believe you are called to be a Children's and Families Worker.

Children and young families work

How do you approach organising church-based activities and events for children and young families?

Baptism preparation

One of the feeds into our church is the baptism of babies and young children, especially via the ABC groups we run. What experience do you have of being involved in encouraging and preparing young families to bring their children forward for baptism?

Mission and the Holy Spirit

Please describe how the Spirit has led and inspired you in mission, giving practical examples.

References

Please note that we will require two references, one preferably your most recent employer, should we make an offer of employment. We do not require details of referees at this point. All offers of employment will be subject to satisfactory references.

Clergy, ordinands and such employed lay people as have duties that require them to represent or speak on behalf of the Church, may not be a member of or promote or solicit support for a party or organisation whose constitution, policy objectives or public statements are declared in writing by the House of Bishops to be incompatible with the Church of England's commitment to promoting racial equality. This explicitly includes the BNP.

St Martin's Church, Liskeard is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of both children, young people and vulnerable adults in the parish and wider diocese. This commitment is promoted by all members of staff who work with children, young people and vulnerable adults throughout Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly. It has a zero-tolerance policy in respect of any abuse, neglect or harm.

By signing and returning this application form you consent to St Martin's Church, Liskeard, using and keeping information about you – provided by you – or third parties such as referees – relating to your application or future employment. This information will be used solely in the recruitment process and will be retained for six months from the date on which you are informed whether you have been invited to interview, or six months from the date of interview. If you are successful, this application will be retained on your personnel file.

Thank you for completing this form.
