Life Group Questions

Based on the sermon at 9.15am and 11am services on 22 March 2026.

Welcome: What is the best thing you have ever built?

Worship: Give thanks for gift of Prayer and pray for those who are not free to prayer maybe find some ideas from Open doors who we are supporting this year: Impossible faith - Open Doors UK & Ireland

Word: Read 1 Thessalonians 5:12-end and Luke 5:12-16

1. What does building a life of prayer mean to you?
2. What might that look like for you and as a life group?
3. These two readings point to the importance that Jesus and Paul put on prayer, what can we learn? What might challenge us?
4. How Jesus modelled and built a life of prayer was to go off to pray alone, how might you do this? Is this something you find challenging?
5. Mark challenged us to put a plan of prayer in place, what might you do?
6. He also asked what as a Life group might you be able to do? For example, focus on one of our mission partners for the year?

Prayer Points:

- Pray for some of the things you have discussed in questions 5 and 6
- Continue to pray for peace around the world, here is a prayer from 24-7 Prayer Global Call for peace
- Pray for where you live – your street, or village or town
