Life Group Questions

From Rev Mark based on his sermon at 9.15am and 11am services on 10 May

Welcome: What is one of your strangest gifts?

Worship: Take time to give thanks for your gifts in the group

Word: Read 1 Corinthians 12

1. What speaks to you? What challenges you?
2. Paul writes about the importance of gifts. How do you respond?
3. Paul writes that all gifts are important, but this is forgotten a lot of the time and the focus is on speaking rather than administration. Why do you think we are prone to do this?
4. Paul writes about being united as one body. What does this mean to you? What does this look like in Church?
5. Mark challenged us to pray and think about how, as the body we are serving, what might this look like?
6. The ministries you are involved in, where do you see the need for more serving?

Witness: Share where you are serving or where God might be asking you to serve using the idea of different ways of serving.

In particular, pray for:

The youth team needs 4 new volunteers for September

Children's team

Worship team, singers, musicians, visuals and Sound

Prayer tent and weekly prayer teams

Many other ministries across our Benefice
