LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS

Read Daniel 9.1-19

1. Daniel's prayer of honour and praise, confession and repentance, offers us both comfort and challenge. He grounds his appeal for restoration in God's mercy and character, rather than the people deserving it. How does that shape the way we understand grace, forgiveness, and our own prayers?
2. Daniel prays while the people are still far from home and their future is uncertain. How can we keep praying faithfully when we cannot see how or when restoration will come?
3. the passage says prayer can change us as we draw nearer to God. How have you experienced prayer changing your priorities, choices, or relationships - and what might you hope it changes next?
